"He's true to God who's true to man:
Wherever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
'Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves,
And not for all the race."

Specimen copies sent to any address on receipt of five cents.

THE complete account of the convention of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf, held at Lebanon, Pa., last week, which is printed in this issue, shows that the deaf of the Keystone State are an aggregation of hustlers. The great reduction in the mortgage on the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, is an unparalleled achievement by a body of deaf men. The systematic work of the branch societies is worthy of study and emulation by the organized bodies of the deaf of other States. The question of State Aid for the Home at Doylestown was wisely settled. To make it a State almshouse for the deaf would be diverting the aims of the originators, and would seem like putting a premium upon pauperism were such a measure adopted by the members and passed by the Legislature of the State. It would also shift the active control of the Home from the Pennsylvania Society to the unsympathetic control of politicians. Perhaps some such arrangement as exists between the Ohio Home and the Supervisors of the Poor of the Counties might be made; still it would be well to go slow in the matter of radical changes.

AN editorial in the Times-Dispatch of Richmond, Va., brings to light a renewed attempt to establish a school for the colored deaf of Virginia. The promoter is a colored preacher, and many influential citizens made a ready response to his appeal, until it was discovered that he was chiefly interested in the sale of a farm on which the establishment might be located. Several now desire to withdraw their support and endorsement, and it is said that recent money complications in which the colored dominion is involved make it likely that his church may prefer charges against him.

The plan to establish in the State a school for deaf and blind colored children has been discussed at various times in the past, and favorably considered by many influential people. It has been brought to the attention of the Legislature. Mr. W. C. Ritter, one of the leading deaf graduates of the Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind, is especially interested in the project, and has done much work to familiarize the public with the need of such a school.

The undertaking is a most worthy one, and the prospect is fair for something to be done in the not distant future to establish a school where the deaf and blind children of the colored race may receive such training as may be necessary to fit them to be self-supporting.

It is hoped that so worthy a cause will not suffer from the present complications.

If subscribers for the JOURNAL would renew their subscriptions without being reminded of that duty, it would save us a good deal of time and considerable expense. Some of our deaf friends seem to think that a promise to pay is the same as cash. There is no doubt but in many cases the promise is good, but in many others it proves a delusion and a snare. While we are always inclined to treat the deaf considerately, they should not expect any different treatment than would be accorded by any business establishment conducted by hearing people.

THE ELMIRA CONFERENCE.

A conference of church workers among the deaf and dumb was held at Grace Church, Elmira, N. Y., on Friday, August 18th, the following being present: The Rev. John Chamberlain, D.D., General Manager of the Church Mission to the Deaf in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island, Connecticut and New York; the Rev. A. W. Mann, General Missionary in the Mid Western Dioceses; the Rev. James H. Cloud, Missionary in the Trans-Mississippi Dioceses; the Rev. C. O. Dantzer, priest in charge of All Souls' Church for the Deaf, Philadelphia, Pa., and Missionary in the Dioceses of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware; the Rev. O. J. Whildin, priest in charge of Grace Mission, Baltimore, Md., and General Missionary in the Southern Dioceses; the Rev. H. Van Allen, Missionary in the Dioceses of Albany, Central New York and Vermont; the Rev. F. C. Smielau, Missionary in the Dioceses of Central Pennsylvania, Harrisburg and Western New York; the Rev. John R. Harding, president of the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York, and Mr. George F. Flick, lay-reader and candidate for Orders, of Baltimore.

Prayers were said by the Rev. Mr. Dantzer.

The Rev. Mr. Mann, Chairman of the last preceding Conference took the chair, and after some discussion of the advisability of continuing the previous organization of the Conference, the Rev. Mr. Dantzer was elected Chairman and the Rev. Mr. Van Allen, Secretary.

The Rev. Messrs. Dantzer and Whildin were appointed a committee to ascertain whether the body of rules governing former Conferences was still in existence, and were instructed to submit them to the next Conference with such changes as might seem desirable. The question of securing an increased number of workers in the mission field was discussed. It was generally recognized that there was a pressing need for such an increase, but the difficulty of securing proper encouragement and support was felt to be the chief obstacle in the way. The Rev. Mr. Cloud stated his willingness to withdraw from the educational work to which the larger portion of his time is now devoted, and to devote himself exclusively to clerical work, provided provision could be made for his support, and he appealed to the Conference for its co-operation to this end. On motion, the Chairman and secretary were appointed a committee to prepare a memorial to the Bishops of the Dioceses nominally in Mr. Cloud's field, asking in the name of the Conference that increased provisions for the support of the Missionary be made.

Several questions as to the proper division of territory between the various missionaries being brought up, an effort was made to settle the differences in an amicable and friendly spirit. The whole subject was finally laid upon the table.

The question of making provision for imparting a distinct religious character to future conferences was referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. E. C. Elsworth, of New York, publisher of the Silent Church, a monthly devoted to the interests of deaf-mute missions, explained his plans for the paper and asked for the co-operation of the members of the Conference. The chairman, the secretary, and the Rev. Mr. Whildin were appointed a committee to confer with Mr. Elsworth, and with power to take such action as would tend to secure the continuance of the publication as the organ of deaf-mute missions.

The statement having been made that there was a movement on foot in certain quarters to ask the next Triennial Convention of the Church to amend the Canon on Examinations for Holy Orders as to dispense with various requirements in the case of candidates intending to devote themselves to work among the deaf and dumb, the chairman and secretary were authorized to memorialize the Convention in the name of the Conference, should such action be required, and state that the step, in the opinion of the Conference, is neither necessary nor calculated to promote the interests of the work among the deaf and dumb.

The Rev. Mr. Whildin and the Rev. Mr. Van Allen were appointed a committee to prepare minutes of respect to the memory of the late Rev. Dr. Gallaudet and the Rev. Mr. Turner.

After the closing prayers by the Chairman, the meeting adjourned sine die.

H. VAN ALLEN,

Secretary.

CONFERENCE NOTES.

On the evening preceding the Conference a public service was held at Grace Church, at which the Bishop of the Diocese, the Right Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, and the rector of the Parish, the Rev. A. P. Rudd, were present, in addition to the clergy attending the Conference. A majority of the members of the Empire State Association of Deaf-Mutes, then in session in Elmira, were present in the congregation. After the lesson, the sacrament of Baptism was administered to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray. The Bishop made a brief address, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. James H. Cloud, of St. Louis. The offering, which was for the Gallaudet Home for Blind, Aged and Infirm Deaf-Mutes, near Poughkeepsie, amounted to $8.51.

Friday morning Holy Communion was celebrated, the Rev. H. Van Allen being celebrant.

At the Friday morning session of the Empire State Association, the Bishop made a brief address to the members, speaking to them in their own graphic language. The Bishop uses the deaf-mute alphabet with facility, and his kindly words of interest, sympathy and encouragement, made a deep and lasting impression.

Governor Yang, of Shantung, Visits the Chefoo School.

DEAR MR. HODGSON:—The following account of the visit of the Governor of the Province of Shantung to the School for the Deaf may be of interest to your numerous readers.

Mrs. Hayes, who has kindly taken charge of affairs, to relieve Mrs. Wells for other work, writes as follows:

"On July 5th, we had a visit from His Excellency, the Governor. I suppose you are so used to these things that they don't startle you. I got word at ten o'clock A.M., that he wanted to come at eleven. I sent word immediately that he should be glad to receive him.

"Mr. C. T. Tong, whom you know (the one who gave the school the globe), wanted to get him interested in the school, and sent a letter by Dr. Yu inviting him to come. The time was so short we had to hustle to be ready for them. Mrs. Taylor came to my relief with her deaf servant, Ning Se Jew, but we both had to 'bend the knee' to help. (Literal translation of the Chinese.)

"The teachers suggested inviting Mr. Tomalin, and he was the only member of the Committee we had time to send word to. We prepared tea and cakes; got the pupils dressed in their best, and put out a display of photographs. It was all too rushed to be done well, but we did the best we could.

"The great man came with a staff of six with him. Mr. Tomalin, Dr. Yu, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Taylor, and I received him. He shook hands with us all, and, of course, came in at the back door. (All Chinese houses face to the south. I did not follow that rule in building my house, which fronts north, hence my Chinese guests usually come to the back door.) We had a photograph taken, with his consent, and now that it is over we feel that it was nice to have such a visit.

"When we were nearly through with tea, the Governor expressed a desire to hear the boys talk, so I invited Mr. Sen to bring in his best pupil, who told them his name, where he lived, etc., then they all went out to the school room, saw the charts, picture cards, saw them do some sums, heard them answer some questions in geography, and Mr. Jang showed how they were taught to speak.

"Some of the escort had been in the United States. One, a military official (the one who stands at the right of the Governor in the photograph) spoke beautiful English and was a refined gentleman, versed in foreign etiquette. We were quite charmed with him. Two of them had visited schools for the deaf in the United States. I do wish we had not been so hurried, as it would have been nice to know what schools they had visited.

"I am doing the best I can for the school. I cannot teach but I go in and look at the work to show my interest, and give them every bit of information we get of you. I like the school and you may be sure we pray for you and the success of your work."

Mrs. Hayes also enclosed the Governor's card and a letter received two days after the visit from Mr. Tong. He wrote as follows:

SHANTUNG GOVERNOR'S QUARTERS,
CHEFOO, JULY 7, 1905.

To the Principal of the Deaf and Dumb School, Mrs. Hayes (or Mrs. Mills).

His Excellency Governor Yang, directs me to thank you for the trouble you took yesterday in showing him your school, and also orders me to say that he deeply appreciated your noble and energetic work in teaching our deaf boys to listen, dumb boys to speak. His Excellency has been very much impressed by your work, and pronounced your school as being the most wonderful institution of the kind he had ever seen.

He begs to be permitted to subscribe $200 (two hundred dollars) which sum is intended for the purchasing of such books or articles which may be of use to the school. He begs that you will accept it as a souvenir of his visit, and as a token of his great appreciation of the school.

Enclosed please find a cheque for $200.00, payable at sight at the Kien Yik Tong Bank, which is well known here.

Yours truly,

C. T. TONG,

(For Governor Yang of Shantung.)

Mrs. Wells, in her last letter, written July 3d, says:

"There are several new applicants, one from Hankow, a child of five years who can hear a little. I hope Mr. Arnold Foster, Church Missionary Society, England, who is sending him, will have a letter to meet you in Shanghai, and perhaps have the boy there for you to bring up."

"Miss Stewart writes of a boy, the son of wealthy parents, who would like to come after the Chinese New Year. His nurse will come with him. You must see the people as you come through Shanghai. There is, also, another applicant from near Ningpo.

"The boys are well. They are to come up to Temple Hill for the vacation. They will be glad to see you back."

It is pleasant to hear of these boys wanting to come. They will be paying pupils to a certain extent, but their coming means the enlargement of our quarters. We have the needed one thousand dollars for the balance due on the mortgage, but nothing yet on the two thousand dollars required for the enlargement. I still believe it will come from some source before I sail in October.

Yours for the Deaf of China,
ANNETTA T. MILLS.

WESTERN NEW YORK.

Perry entertained the Wyoming and Genesee County Firemen's Convention, August 8th and 9th. Some of the deaf people attended.

Mrs. Nellie Kehler, who is employed at the Perry Knitting Mills, for the past two weeks has been visiting in Rochester and Charlotte.

On pay day, in Norway, saloons are closed, and savings banks are open until midnight.

Mrs. M. H. Leary, of Perry, has just returned home after a three weeks' visit in Byron Centre. She with her sister, Sadie, and Mr. Fred Browning took in the excursion to Ontario Beach and Sea Breeze, and enjoyed the sights.

C. W. Stowell, of the Wyoming Ice Company, was unable to be present at the Convention of the Empire State Association in Elmira, on account of ice and poultry business. He has been acting Superintendent, as the Superintendent has gone west for two weeks.

The newspapers in Lemberg, Austria, state that they have learned that physicians say that the Czarevitch, the infant son of the Czar, is deaf.

Charles Frigheit spent Sunday in Byron Centre with Miss Susie Lambert, Mrs. Robert Henry and Mrs. Browning.

"Old Shoe" says: Marriage is a failure when the wife has to play rub-a-dub on the washboard to support a lazy, drunken husband.

Miss Susie Lambert, sister of Mrs. Robert Henry, ran into an automobile while driving to Albama, N. Y. She was knocked out of the buggy and dragged some distance. She was slightly injured, no bones being broken. The horse was stopped by a man, but the buggy was smashed into splinters. At this writing she is much better.

The first successful milking machine is being manufactured by a firm somewhere near Perry. One man and a boy operating four machines, can milk fifty cows in twelve minutes. It would be valuable if practical. Deaf farmers are advised to try it in order to save much hire.

Clarence E. Webster, of Castile, was a visitor at Silver Lake last Sunday. He says he has raised about one hundred chickens. That is a good beginning for his small business, and he talks of purchasing a fine twelve-acre place with a house in the Spring.

Some deaf people are at present at Silver Lake. Good fishing, boating, bathing, and dancing are among the attractions. If you are not fortunate to have a cottage, stop at the Walker House, where board may be had at reasonable rates.

Miss Susie Lambert, Mrs. R. Henry, of Silver Springs, and Mrs. Fred Browning were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Freghet, of North Street, Thursday and Friday. The latter were graduates at Fanwood thirty years ago.

The latest visitors at Silver Lake were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Volker and little daughter, of Buffalo, N. Y. They enjoyed an outing last Sunday.

Hello! Ted—We throw our panama hat in the air that you were elected as president of the Empire State Association in Elmira. Hearty congratulations to Ted, and we trust he will make a brilliant president, perhaps better than his successors. He seems to be the happiest man in the city of New York now.

The Rochester Times says: "Mr. William S. Gibbs, a deaf-mute of 409 Gregory Street, stepped off a Sea Breeze car, near Forest House, and in crossing the track slipped in front of a car going in the opposite direction. He was knocked down and bruised about the head. His injuries were dressed at the Homeopathic Hospital, August 14th."

Send the JOURNAL to absent friends. It is as good as a letter.

OLD SHOE.

Theodore F. Romeyn, a brother of Jane Ann Romeyn, of Glenville, N. Y., died on July 19th. Miss Romeyn has just returned from a visit to her brother, John, in Amsterdam, N. Y.

After a lingering illness of two weeks, Mrs. Charles Thomas, (nee Miss Jennie Van Syke) of Hamburg, N. Y., passed away on Monday, August 21st, and was buried at respect Lawn, Hamburg, the following Wednesday.

OHIO.

Death of Mrs. Mabel Fisher Miller.

CUPID AT WORK.

Summer Visitors, and the Visited.

(News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 933 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.)

August 26, 1905.—How uncertain life is! But a few weeks ago, Mrs. Mabel Fisher Miller, in her cheerful home, surrounded by a loving and devoted husband, three happy little children, in whom her love and care were most ardent, was the very picture of health. Eagerly she looked forward to the gathering of the National Convention of the American Instructors of the Deaf, at her home city, in Morganton, N. C., to meet old-time Ohio friends, and great pleasure it gave her to mingle again and talk with several, also her former teacher and Principal, Dr. Patterson, to whom she made known her plans for next year, among which was a visit to her former Ohio home. Judge of the surprise and sorrow that was felt, when it became known this week, through a letter to Dr. Patterson from Mr. Hofstater, a teacher in the North Carolina School for the Deaf, stating that Mrs. Miller had died on the 18th inst., from pneumonia. She had been sick with the dreaded disease about two weeks, and was thought to be gradually improving, when suddenly Death's summons came and claimed her as its own. To add to the grief of the stricken husband, the eldest daughter, aged about six years, was at this time taken down with typhoid fever. Surely his cup of sorrow is overflowing. The remains of Mrs. Miller were interred in Goldsboro, the family home of Mr. Miller, Mrs. Miller's parents having come from their Ohio home, Fisher P. O., Athens County, to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Miller became a pupil of the school here in the early eighties, being then about eight years old. She was an only child of fond, loving parents, beautiful, bright and vivacious, and made rapid progress in her studies. She graduated in 1891 with the highest honors of the class, and after that until her marriage in 1899, devoted a great deal of time to art painting, in which she became quite skilled. She had taken a course in a Cincinnati art school. She was in attendance at the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf and the tenth Reunion of the Ohio Deaf-Mute Alumni, both held here in the summer of 1898, and at the former she met and became acquainted with Mr. J. C. Miller, to whom she was wedded in June or July the following year. The union proved a most happy one to both. Three children were born to it, two daughters and a son, who now at a time most needed, are bereft of a loving mother's most tender care.

Mr. A. C. Powell, of Findlay, was a visitor in Columbus, Sunday. Unfortunately, he found the writer away from home in the country enjoying Fairfield County roasting ears, chickens and other good things found upon farmer's tables at this season of the year. Mr. Powell for the present is acting as agent for some company for a living.

Miss Tacey E. Hall, seamstress at the Institution, arrived here from Morgan County, where she had been visiting relatives, Monday, and left yesterday for Salem, O., to take care of a sick sister. She may not be able to resume her position at the Institution for some time.

Mr. William Zorn and family returned from northwestern Ohio the first of the week, where they had been visiting relatives since early in July. Mr. Zorn goes to-morrow to Norwalk, and will later return with Mr. Zorn's mother.

Cupid got in his work on a couple of Columbus deaf, Sunday, when Mr. Albert Steel and Mrs. Frank Gillespie were joined in the bonds of wedlock. The wedding was a surprise to the Columbus deaf, as the parties kept their intentions to themselves, with one or two exceptions. Not till the papers announced the fact, did it become known.

Miss Edith Fitzgerald was this week a guest of Miss Ethel Zell, and Thursday she was given a drive down to the big Hartman Stock Farm. Hartman is the greatest medical advertiser and Peruna man.

Mr. Donn Vincent, of Crafton, Penna., and a graduate of the Western Pennsylvania Institution, was visiting relatives in Columbus this week. He also visited the Institution here, and thinks it a grand one.

Mr. Harrison Grigsby returned from his vacation Saturday evening, spending half with his brother-in-law, Moses Geyer, of Galesburg, Ill. Mr. Geyer is still engaged at his trade, harness making, and is doing well. Their three children are grown up and scattered, each earning a living. Mr. Grigsby spent a week with his second oldest son by his first wife, of Chicago. Chicago was a big and wonderful city to him.

WEST VIRGINIA

News items should be sent to John C. Bremer, 3504 Jacob Street, Wheeling, West Virginia.

At Wheeling Park, about five miles from this city, a deaf party enjoyed a most pleasant outing last Saturday afternoon. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Keener, of Benwood, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bremer, Miss Ada J. Anderson, of Wheeling Island, and Messrs. Herbert Stoehr, of Echo Point, Frank Burtoft, of Bellaire, O., and William Halpin. A very appetizing luncheon was splendidly served in a pavilion. Afterward, the most part of the affair was spent in the delightful recreation of bowling.

The St. Matthew's Deaf-Mute Guild was called to business at Steenrod's Place some Thursday evenings ago, and discussed, through Mr. and Mrs. Platoff Zane, a plan of the proposed deaf church, which a contractor offered to build for only one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200.) So far, the fund amounts to $995.75, with several large pledges, but it is not yet known when to start building the chapel. A new road across Steenrod's farm from the tracks of the Mount de Chantal Street Railway was recently made much shorter and more comfortable to where the church will be founded.

Messrs. George W. Sine, of Toronto, O., and Charles Blackburn, of Steubenville, O., were in Wheeling some Sunday ago. Before returning home, the latter attended to his short business with a local tobacco leaf dealer, while the former became a subscriber of the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, through the reporter.

Mr. Charles Lester, of Willowtown, stated that Mr. and Mrs. William R. Crockett left shortly ago to live in Virginia. No plans of their future life are yet given, but it is thought that the husband will return to that old big place.

Mr. Lee Harris, of Cameron, returned home last Wednesday, after a week's pleasant visit to his folks and nudes in this city.

The Romney School will re-open September 13th.

Mr. Alexander J. McMullen, of Williamstown, resigned his employment in a job printing office in Parkersburg shortly ago, because of his proprietor paying him very irregularly. He may come to Wheeling to obtain some other work.

The reporter forgot to say that Mr. William B. Wayman stopped off here for a day several weeks ago on his way to his home in Chicago, Ill., from Romney, where he stayed for about a month with Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Seaton. Before departing, he pledged two dollars ($2.00) for the deaf church fund.

Master Norris Horrold is an excellent distributor of J. W. Kenan's grocery store of Eighteenth Street.

Several days ago, the Fairmont Branch of the Humane Society of Fairmont, as the local papers reported, took custody of Miss Minnie Cramer, a deaf and dumb girl, through a squire, and was brought to Wheeling to be kept in the Home of the Good Shepherd. The name of the deaf-mute was never heard or known before, and an investigation will be made by the local deaf soon to send her to the Romney School.

Several deaf-mutes took advantage of a free pleasant ride on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling Railroad, to Holloway, O., a new town several weeks ago.

Mr. William Linville, a deaf carpenter, of Clarksburg, during the early part of the month, made an enjoyable sojourn in Harrison County, which is considered to lead in the largest deaf population in the State, and made delightful visits for every several days to the following: Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bungardner and Miss Maud Golden, of Craigmoor; Mr. and Mrs. John Pickens, considered the wealthiest deaf-mutes of this State, of Quiet Dell; Miss Maud Kennedy, of Lost Creek; Mr. Chapman B. Stewart, of Overfield, and other deaf persons whose names are not given.

Mr. McGregor, a teacher of the Columbus, O. School for the Deaf, has made a brief but pleasant call to Mrs. Platoff Zane, at Mt. de Chantal, and took his first sight-seeing trip in this city to-day.

By Courtesy of Mr. Alex. J. McMullen.

Miss Alma Wilson is now working in a shirt factory at Pennsboro. Miss Etta Hawkins is at present visiting her relatives and friends in Ironton, O. She will return to school at Romney in September.

Miss Lulu Johnson, of Waverly, was a recent guest of Parkersburg relatives.

Mr. Nevil Marshall, of near Cairo, Ritchie County, spent a few days last week, the guest of Mr. Julius Andre, at Parkersburg, before returning to the Romney School.

Mr. Emory Barker, of near Pennsboro, was in Parkersburg recently, looking for work. He went to Wheeling, Athens, O., and other places, but at last returned home empty-handed.

Misses Lacie Wagner and Blanche Jamison, of Fairmont, spent a week with Miss Grace Showalter, at Pennsboro, some time ago.

Mr. John Hamilton, of Lumberport, and Miss Marietta Rusk, of Martinsburg, were married in the early part of July. They are living in Lumberport, where the groom owns a home, and has a good steady job in the coal mines.

On the 13th inst., Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Correll, of Parkersburg, invited a number of their deaf friends to partake of a bounteous supper. Refreshments were served, including ice-cream, cake, watermelon, etc. A few hours were pleasantly spent in conversation about old times, after which all retired to the dining-room, where the things mentioned above were served. Those present were the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Bismarck Schlegel and children, Miss Cora Uhl, of Marietta, O., and Miss Della McGill, of Athens County, O., Miss Grace Correll, and a Miss Pendergast, a hearing lady from New York, Mr. Julius Andre and myself. All went to their respective homes at a late hour, feeling happy, and the good time they had will linger in the minds of those present for many a day.

A Mr. Faulkner stopped in Parkersburg some time ago. He had come from the land of sunshine and flowers—California.

[The deaf-mute is Mr. Timothy Faulkner, a brother of Mr. Patrick Faulkner, of Wheeling. Timothy, after several years' shoemaking, had to leave here for the West to improve his poor health about ten years ago. It was understood that he was to re-visit his old home at Weston. He is expected to come here.]

EASTERN OHIO.

Down on Belmont Street, Bellaire, the cosy home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Corbett, both popular deaf-mutes of the booming town, was the scene of a very interesting and enjoyable affair, beneficially to the deaf Home as well as complementarily to Mr. Robert McGregor, a deaf professor of the Columbus School. Those in it were the host and hostess and children, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Robb, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Littleton, Misses Ada J. Anderson, formerly of Sardin, Susie Boettner, of Steubenville; Daisy and Grace Littleton, Sarah Cottrill, of Bridgeport; Anthony Schwartz, of Marietta; Willie Case, of Clarington; Peter Gilooly, of Kirkwood; Frank Burtoft, David Lebow, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bremer, of Wheeling, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Keener, of Benwood, W. Va.; Herbert Stoehr, of Echo Point, W. Va.; Mr. Frank Yost, of McMechen, W. Va.

The Ladies' Aid Society for awhile transacted some business in connection with the Home, in the parlor. Mrs. Bremer was admitted as a member. Mr. McGregor gave them a short, but impressive lecture about love and kindness, pertaining to the Home, and the proposed church in Wheeling, W. Va. The proceeds of the party amounted to about three dollars, and at a seasonable hour luncheon, consisting of ice cream and cake, satisfied those hungry throats well.

The Bellaire Division, No. 6, of the Fraternal Society of the Deaf, is broken up, owing to lack of confidence since the convention at Detroit, Mich. The Bellaire Deaf-Mute Association will be increased, and a meeting will soon be called.

Before coming to Bellaire Mr. McGregor was in Pittsburg, Pa., and delivered a lecture for the benefit of Trinity Deaf-Mute Guild. He returns home to-morrow.

The condition of Mr. Frank Brennan, of Marietta, who suddenly got insane several months ago, and was taken to an asylum at Athens, is reported to be improving.

Miss Susie Boettner, of Steubenville, has recently been added to the deaf community of Bellaire. She was successful in securing a good position in the Rodefer Glass Works. She boards with Mr. and Mrs. Littleton, has a deaf brother, John, living in the former town.

Mr. Willie Case, of Clarington, is a bright young man, who is a frequent visitor in Bellaire. He is a good ball player. He once asked the Wheeling (W. Va.) Base Ball Club of the Central League for a position. He expects to enter the profession next season.

Mr. Anthony Schwartz has obtained employment in a glass factory in Bellaire, and if he likes it, he will locate there permanently, if not he will go to Cambridge. He reports that his wife, nee Miss Delancy, is living in Marietta, and that she is in the best of health.

A five o'clock dinner at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Frazier, Bridgeport, was partaken of by Miss Ida Millard, of Costine or "Coal town," and Messrs. Wm. Halpin, Wm. Seamon and Willie Alexander, of Wheeling, W. Va., this afternoon.

NEW YORK.

The Picnic of the Brooklyn Deaf-Mutes' Club.

THE XAVIER DEAF-MUTES CELEBRATE.

Occurrences Among the Deaf the Past Week and Events to Come.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

The Brooklyn Deaf-Mute picnic, at Grand Street Park, on Saturday last, was a repetition of former successes, and nothing in the way of disorder to mar the occasion.

The base ball game came off on schedule time, and the aggregation from Connecticut was smothered by the nine Johnny Shea put in the field. It may be pertinent to add that the diamond and grounds were equal to any in the first-class base ball parks. It was difficult to get the names and batting order of the visitors, although the club distributed score cards with blanks for names.

For Brooklyn, Driscoll, Shea and Sunderhoff carried off the honors. Driscoll made three runs, Shea, two, (including a two-bagger and a 3-base hit); Sunderhoff, three. Hayden did well behind the bat, but did not connect with the ball when he faced the pitcher. Molloy, Kegel, Eisenberg, Tompeto and O'Grady all did well. For the visitors, Bronson and the Marshall brothers were far and away the best. Cossette was also good, and did fairly well as catcher, when a dislocated finger sent Marshall to first base. Only six innings were played, and the total score was: Brooklyn, 12; Connecticut, 3.

Then followed the games, in which the officials were: Frank Brown, starter; Judges—James F. Donnelly, Joseph Graham, H. Hanemann.

In the fifty-yards run for ladies, Mrs. M. Changnon was first, Miss Annie Keitel, second.

The potato race for ladies resulted in a dispute and was run over again. The winners were: Martha Mayer, first; Annie Keitel, second. Potato race for men—Blumenthal first; Baker, second.

A hop-race of fifty yards resulted: Driscoll, first; Taub, second; O'Grady, third.

Out of a half dozen ladies who started in the hop-race for ladies, only Mrs. M. Changnon covered the course, and was awarded the prize.

The backward-race for men resulted in a dead heat for Avers and Taub, but when run over again, Avers came in an easy winner.

A peanut scramble between about twenty ladies was won by Miss Giebert, who gathered in twenty-one peanuts, Mrs. M. Changnon being second, with twelve peanuts.

The half-mile run was won by Louis Baker, with Timothy Connell a good second.

Six men started out in the one-mile heel-and-toe walking contest, but the disqualifications for skipping were so numerous that the decision as to who won was not made known.

After the games the dancing began in the spacious covered pavilion, to the strains of Reiff's orchestra. The program contained twenty-three numbers, and nearly all were danced. The floor manager was Frank Hayden, assisted by Elliott Taplin.

Altogether the picnic was a most enjoyable and well-conducted affair, and congratulations are due the club and especially the Committee of Arrangements—Messrs. A. McLaren, Chairman, W. L. Bowers, Peter F. Redington, Frank Eeka and John M. Jackson.

The officers of the Brooklyn Club of Deaf-Mutes are: H. F. Beck, President; A. McLaren, Vice-President; J. M. Jackson, Recording Secretary; J. F. Britt, Financial Secretary; J. F. Redington, Treasurer; F. Hayden, Sergeant-at-Arms; W. L. Bowers (Chairman), H. P. Kane and Frank Eeka, Executive Committee.

The committees on this occasion were:—

Floor Committee—James F. Britt (Chairman), F. Backhus, W. Brown, W. Fricken, J. Knopp, G. Lindemann, A. Berg, J. D. Buckley, A. Hanemann, H. Kogel, G. F. Marshall, J. M. Black, M. Changnon, H. L. Juhring, A. J. Laing, F. A. Brown, H. Eschert, H. P. Kane, A. F. Larek.

Reception Committee—John D. Shea (Chairman), Wm. Moore, T. J. O'Grady, W. B. Taylor, A. Eisenberg, Wm. Morris, S. F. Pachter, G. V. Wigley, P. Conlon, Wm. F. Long, Chas. Sanford, Geo. Yoerger, C. Pochette, Jr., W. Nachumson, J. Schloss, John Moran.

The Club has two honorary members, Messrs. James Russell and H. J. Holtermann.

The next public affair by the Brooklyn Club of Deaf-Mutes will be a Mask Ball, to occur on Saturday, the 10th of February, 1906. Mr. John M. Jackson is chairman of the committee.

Deaf-mutes from New York and the neighboring cities, towns and villages, assembled at St. Francis Xavier's Church on West 16th Street, August 27th, in connection with the celebration of Epheta Sunday. The word "Epheta" in Hebrew means "to loosen." It was used by our Lord when he gave speech to the dumb.

The Fathers of St. Francis Xavier's Church have about three hundred deaf-mutes under their charge. They conduct a Sunday school every week for them, and have set aside one Sunday every year for a special celebration in connection with the feast. The deaf-mutes came from New Jersey, from remote parts of New York, and even from Pennsylvania and Connecticut, to take part in the celebration. The exercises in connection with the celebration included mass in the Sodality Chapel and holy communion at 9 o'clock. Breakfast was subsequently served to the deaf-mutes in the drill room of St. Francis Xavier's College. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Father McCarthy, who has charge of the deaf-mute Sunday school. High honor was conferred on Messrs. John E. O'Brien and James F. Donnelly, two pioneers in the religious work among the adult Catholic deaf of this city. They acted as altar boys, serving Rev. Father McCarthy during the offering of the holy sacrifice.

That not more than half a hundred deaf-mutes attended the mass was in a measure due to a misunderstanding and lack of due notice being given. It was not confined to the members of the Ephpheta Society, but all were welcome to attend. Father McCarthy's intention is to make the celebration of the feast an annual occurrence to bring the deaf together at mass. No doubt need be felt but next year's celebration will be participated in by a large gathering.

After breakfast, there were commemorative exercises in the lecture hall of the college, on the occurrence of the silver jubilee of the Xavier Union of Deaf-Mutes. Not many feet away from where the exercises took place, twenty-five years ago, Mr. James F. O'Neil (deceased), called together the first meeting of the adult Catholic Deaf of this city. Reminiscences of that meeting and events among the Xavier deaf-mutes since then were recounted by Messrs. Donnelly and O'Brien. A short address was also made by Rev. E. J. Delaney, an old college associate of Father McCarthy, who is acquiring the use of the sign language, with the purpose of taking charge of the religious teaching of the Catholic deaf in New Orleans and other parts of the South.

Father Delaney is an enthusiast in the work. He will represent the Xavier Deaf-Mute Club at the Conference of the Catholic Young Men's Federation to be held in New Orleans. In him the Xavier Club has a worthy champion. A quartette of young ladies from Jersey City rendered a hymn in concerted signs, very gracefully, and views appropriate to the occasion, were shown with the stereopticon by Mr. McCarthy, a Jesuit scholastic, proving very interesting.

The Xavier Club will begin business September 6th. Chairman James Gaffney has made out a schedule of lectures and entertainments. The initial literary evening will find the President of the Club, J. F. O'Brien, on the rostrum, in a Shakespeare reading, "The Merchant of Venice." Other events are being arranged for, and a successful year is anticipated.

The baseball team of the Xavier Club took the St. Mary's nine into camp, at the latter's grounds on Staten Island, August 27th. Score, 11 to 6. Chris. Fitzgerald's slow drop and curve ball was too much for the Staten Islanders.

A merry party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Kane, Mrs. Chagnon, Miss Jaycox, Miss Dressing, Messrs. Jackson, Schindler, Hayden, Beck, Redington, Kenner, Shea and others, all of whom had just left the picnic of the Brooklyn Deaf-Mutes' Club, boarded a car bound for New York. Somehow—or was it the pranks indulged in by the party, and the fact that a beautiful belle occupied a seat behind him, that turned the conductor's head and confused him, as a result of which, the car got on the wrong track. It had sped on over a considerable distance when the mistake was discovered, and after a great lapse of time and inconvenience, during which one of the number generously volunteered to "find the track," the motorman had already found "it," however, and had to retrace the course backward. Thus the frolicsome trip homeward was converted into an impromptu "trip across the continent," which the "tourists" took in good-naturedly enough, and dubbed it a "trolley picnic," which consumed nearly two hours.

A terrific storm interfered with the attendance at the reception given Rev. James H. Cloud, in the Guild Room of St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes, on Thursday evening, August 24th. Nevertheless, about forty defied Jupiter Pluvius, and exchanged greetings with the Missouri divine. Rev. Dr. Chamberlain introduced Mr. Cloud in a complimentary vein, and the latter responded with an address that showed a warm interest in the deaf and an intelligent conception of the work at St. Ann's. Others who made brief addresses were Messrs. E. A. Hodgson, W. G. Jones and Albert Ballin. Afterwards, most of those present went to the home of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, where refreshments were served and a pleasant hour or two was whiled away in conversation.

Mrs. M. Heyman, writing from London, under date of August 18th, says: "We are having one of the most pleasant times of our lives, and it will be with many regrets when we leave old England for our beloved land of liberty. Visited Windsor Castle and Hampton Court Palace, and in them both one can see the splendor and glory of modern and ancient court life. Westminster Abbey has the appearance of true stately dignity. Went to the Tower of London, Houses of Parliament, Crystal Palace, and not forgetting the church of the British deaf-mutes (St. Saviour's.) Met Rev. Gilby and many others. Parks are numerous, and fine in and around the city."

The Grand Council of the League of Elect Surds meets next month. The Grand Lodge does not meet till October 14th, on which date a nominating committee will be appointed to prepare a ticket for the annual election, which takes place in January. Besides this, the business session of the Surds in October promises to be very interesting, as during the Summer no meetings are held, and it is presumed that there will be plenty of matters that will come up for discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Stevens, in company with Miss Donohue, of Philadelphia, Pa., took an excursion to New York last Sunday, taking in the sights at Coney Island. In the afternoon, they visited the Deaf-Mutes' Union League club rooms, from which they left to board the seven o'clock train homeward.

Marquerite L. Talley, her mother and two nieces, Katie Ryan and Helen Marlow, are spending their vacation at Red Bank with relatives for a couple of weeks, and Mr. James Lonergan goes down there on Sundays to spend a day with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Orr and baby Hazel, will spend a week, beginning Labor Day, out on Long Island. They will stop at Cold Spring Harbor, L. I. From that place they will go to Patchogue, L. I., to be guests of Mrs. Orr's relatives.

Mr. William Lipgens celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his birth on August 18th. Several friends assembled at his home, and all had a jolly time until two o'clock in the morning. Mr. Lipgens has many rare vases and paintings, which his friends admired. He is now at the new Tiffany establishment on Fifth Avenue and 37th Street.

Mrs. William Spink and her son are spending a few days in Fair Haven, Long Branch. Mrs. Spink has been sick a long time but is now much better.

The Misses Stemple, of East Stroudsburg, after a day or two spent with their aunt in Brooklyn, have gone to Ocean Grove, N. J., to stay two weeks.

Rev. Dr. Chamberlain goes on a short vacation this week. As it is the first time he has been away since the death of Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, he expects much benefit from a couple of weeks' rest. During his absence, provision has been made for the Sunday services at St. Ann's and the work of the church will not be interrupted.

On Sunday, August 20th, at St. Michaels' Church, East New York, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boswell was baptized. Mrs. Jules L. Maria acted as godmother, and Mr. Geo. Donovan, as godfather.

Mr. Hansford Anderson, of Baltimore, Md., was a delighted visitor at the Deaf-Mutes' Union League club rooms Sunday evening. He will leave for home this week or next.

Miss Anna H. Mackenzie, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will not be at home to her friends for some time, as she has gone to Freeport, L. I., for a prolonged stay.

Miss Lizzie Miller, who has been residing in New York for the past few years, has gone to Chicago to remain indefinitely.

Mrs. Susan Knox again leaves town on September 2d, to visit friends in New Jersey.

Miss Gussie Berley is spending her vacation in Northville, N. Y.

Theo. S. Rose is again in town after a month spent at Kennebunkport, Me.

Michael J. Gormley goes to Clarendon, Pa., on Labor Day.

INDIANA.

What the Hoosier State Deaf are Doing.

THE BIGGEST FISH YARN YET.

Surprise Parties and Other News Notes.

INDIANAPOLIS IND., June 30th, 1905.—We are now definitely located at 320 Blake St. Indianapolis, and those having items for this column should act accordingly. A. H. NORRIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., August 20, 1905.—Many of our readers will probably have wondered at our long silence. In explanation thereof we wish to inform them that this is the busy season where we are employed, and all hands are called on to work twelve hours per day about five days in the week. Thus you see we have had no time to give to our writing.

Mr. August Jutt and wife have both been very ill for some weeks, and at last accounts were improving very slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mock, of Muncie, recently spent a few days with friends in the city.

N. Lee Harris is back from Wauwassee with a string of fish stories that would do credit to a Munchausen. Lee swears that N. F. Morrow is the only man who knows where to get the big ones, and that under Morrow's guidance he succeeded in landing a boat-load of two and three foot pike in five minutes. In fact, Lee says he could not pull them out fast enough, and they simply leaped into the boat themselves. What kind of "bait" did you use Lee, or was it a "pipe dream?"

Rev. A. W. Mann will hold services in Christ Church, Monument Circle and Meridian Street, Sunday, September 17th, at 10:30 A.M. and 3 P.M. Let all turn out and bid our venerable friend a hearty welcome after his long absence.

The following was handed us by one who was present:—

On the evening of August 18th, Mr. William Seitz called on his best girl, Miss Louisa Heede, even if it was Friday night.

Mr. Lee Harris represents to Mr. Robert Binkley that they need Mr. Seitz to go down in the city with them, so they betake themselves to Miss Heede, when there, Miss Heede prevails on the crowd to go with her to call on Mr. Leon Bonham. They did so, and when they arrived were surprised to find other guests, and they kept coming until there was a nice crowd. Mr. Binkley was disturbed because he had not shaved, but he soon forgot his "whiskers" in the merriment.

The evening was very pleasant, though warm, and Leon refreshed us with ice cream and cake. A number of invited guests were prevented from coming for various reasons. Among the guests were, Miss Heede, Messrs. Harris, Swinb, Overhiser, Phillips, Seitz, Binkley, Arnot and Franklin and Ledge Sackett.

Mr. Seitz leaves in a few days for his new post of duty, as printer in the School for the Deaf at Cave Springs, Ga. May he be prosperous in his work, and be a blessing to the deaf of Georgia.

Mr. Binkley leaves shortly for his school work in Clear old Gallaudet. May his mind be like that of a giant, to receive and hold all the teachings and readings of this college year.

They are both among our best young men, and, we will miss them but only for a time we hope.

Miss Pearl Pansy Kriwitz, of Kendallville, is expected to visit Indianapolis friends next month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grubbs are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby-girl, who came to town a couple of weeks ago. George is still celebrating.

N. Lee Harris will chaperon a party composed of Robert Binkley and his smile to Ft. Wayne next Sunday.

Mr. Oscar Shaefer has quit wood carving, and is now at work as a bench machinist at the Pope-Waverly Auto Works.

T. R. Michaels recently made about $500 worth of improvements on his Keystone Avenue property, and as a result has almost doubled its renting price. "Dory" is never behind the door when a chance to make money comes along.

We are very grateful to Mr. J. F. Arnot, of Delphi, for an interesting newsletter, but as the following from B. A. Richards, of Huntington, which arrived first, contains the same items we do not feel that it would be wise to print both:—

Sunday, July 30th, 1905, is the date that will always remain bright in the recollection of Mrs. J. F. Arnot, an estimable lady, of Delphi, Ind. The reason of this is that her friends and family gave her a very enjoyable surprise in honor of her natal day and family reunion. A splendid dinner proved an enjoyable feature of the pleasant occasion, and Mrs. Arnot was given many elegant and useful presents, as agreeable reminders of the delightful day in her life's history. A group picture was taken of the company. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arnot, Michigan City; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Odes N. Rinker, Flora; Geo. W. Arnot, Indianapolis; Miss and Mrs. Mike Augustine, Rossville; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Moss, Peru; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Richards, and Wm. Pugh, Huntington; Mr. and Mrs. Lipp Griesheimer, Miss Blanche Nipple, Miss Pansy Arnot, Delphi; J. A. Frankfort; S. A. Heilbronner, Ft. Wayne; J. Kingery, Brighthurst; Miss L. Uley, Pyrmont; Miss Jennie Myers, Wabash. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arnot did not go home till Monday evening.

Master Bloose, of Monument City, accompanied by his father, were in the city last Friday. They took in the Wallace show.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Snyder, of Ft. Wayne were in Richmond and attended the funeral of Mr. Snyder's mother last week.

The Rev. Renike, of Chicago, will conduct services at St. Paul's Church, Ft. Wayne, Sunday evening, August 13th. All are earnestly invited.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

"Better late than never," so here goes an account of the Black Gill Club Boys' picnic. It took place August 5th, at Manitou Beach. Some arrived there in the A.M., others waited till after dinner. The usual good time was had. Lots to eat, games, and prizes, saying good-byes and catching cars for home. It rained some, but that did not dampen any of the pleasures.

Mr. Lorenzo Pulver has left the printing trade, and joined the crowd at Stromberg's.

Monday, August 14th, Maplewood had a large number of deaf-mutes, gathered there to meet their former Pastor. He had come East to attend the Elmira Convention, and did not want to let the opportunity to see his Rochester friends slip by, so he held service in Rev. Smielau's place, and Mrs. Frances, Stein and Miss Laner planned a little picnic for him. The women met at the park in the afternoon, the men went there right from work. The deaf had not been to that park before, and were much pleased with it, and the man who had charge of the grounds was most courteous and kind to all—a kindness which was greatly appreciated. A large table was just covered with good things to eat. The committee must have known how hungry working men are.

There was plenty for all and lots left over. The picnic was a success, and great credit falls upon the committee.

Mrs. Lung also did what she could to help along.

Mr. Wm. Gibbs has been in the hospital two weeks. He had a very deep cut in his heel, bruises about his head and limbs. The papers did not have the story correct. He did not step off a car into the path of another. Another came at break-neck speed and knocked him down. Mrs. Gibbs has the heartfelt sympathy of all her friends. When he recovers they expect to spend a week or so at his parents' home in Sudus, N. Y.

Miss Florence Hill is having a fine time in Canada.

Mrs. Wm. Borinstein is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Newhouse, of Buffalo, and her three children. Mr. Newhouse came with his wife Sunday, but went back in the evening. His wife will stay a week.

Mrs. H. Kimmel was unfortunate enough to fall and break her arm. We are glad to say it is getting well.

While Rev. Dantzer, our former pastor, was here, he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. Davis.

Mrs. Jennie Van Syke Thomas is gone to her Heavenly Home. She was a pupil of Dr. Z. F. Westervelt, and about fifteen years ago, and since then has lived in Hamburg, N. Y. She leaves only her husband, as her two children both died.

David Harris's shop, where Mr. C. Colgan has worked the past three years, was badly damaged by water on account of a fire, being in a barber shop on the floor above.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Davis were in Syracuse recently. The deaf there gave them a surprise party.

Mr. and Mrs. Borinstein were greatly surprised to see a nephew of theirs from Indianapolis walk in the other day. He had to return home the same evening, as he came on an excursion train.

CONVENTION COMMENT.

News of the Week.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reider, 1838 Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A wedding of deaf-mutes took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Potts, 619 Dudley Street, when their daughter, Miss Barbara Potts, was married to Benjamin K. Landis, also a mute, by Rev. Karl Villivimien, pastor of the German Presbyterian Church of Peace, Tenth Street and Snyder Avenue.

The wedding was the culmination of silent courtship began at a deaf-mutes' convention held at Allentown a year ago, of which the bride and bridegroom were delegates. Both are graduates of the Mount Airy School, but neither saw the other while attending the school.

Dr. Villivimien, although he is not a mute, understands the sign language and asked the questions in the marriage ceremony himself. Miss Laura Wilson, a mute friend of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Charles Wilson, her brother, was best man. A wedding breakfast will be served this morning, after which Mr. and Mrs. Landis will leave for Atlantic City on their honeymoon. They will reside in Porkasie, where Mr. Landis is in business.

It is just one year ago that the convention at which Miss Potts and Mr. Landis met was held. A deep attachment immediately sprang up. They met often afterwards. The courtship was carried on by means of the sign language, and the bridegroom said that while it took longer than the ordinary way, it was just as successful in results.

The marriage license was taken out on Tuesday. Mr. Landis and Miss Potts were accompanied by Charles Wilson, who, although not a mute, understands the language and acted as interpreter.—Philadelphia Press, Aug. 24, '05.

The following was reported in the Record of August 26th:—

CHESTER, PA., August 25.—Clarance Kassal, a six-year-old mute, fell from the porch of his home, at Essington, and sustained a fracture of the right leg. By reason of his affliction he was unable to speak, and was obliged to lie helpless on the ground and suffer until he was found by his mother.

Adieu! Lebanon, convention city of 1905.

Reports from different sources agree it was a pleasant and profitable convention, even though the attendance was not as large as had been expected. But the greatest disappointment was felt on Friday, the day set apart for the picnic at Mount Gretna, which the rain completely spoiled. It rained from Philadelphia to Lebanon and undoubtedly kept many more at home on the line.

What a fine opportunity our deaf had to enjoy a little vacation to Lebanon at a greatly rate. Many took advantage of it, but many more missed it. The regular excursion rate from Philadelphia to Lebanon is $3.44; the reduced rate, by card order, was $1.75. See the difference and bear it in mind next time.

Rev. James H. Cloud, M.A., of St. Louis, Mo., and formerly Assistant Minister at All Souls', paid his Philadelphia friends a visit from August 19th to the 23d, stopping with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reider. On Sunday evening, 20th, Rev. Mr. Cloud officiated at All Souls' Church, and preached to a large congregation. The attendance was a surprise to many, as so many of our deaf were known to be out of town that only about half the number had been expected at this service. It was a fitting welcome to our faithful former minister. On Monday evening a number of deaf called on Mr. Cloud at his stopping place, and on Wednesday morning he left for New York and other places.

Objection arising, the proposed excursion to Woodland Beach by the Gallaudet Club, on Sunday, the 20th, was abandoned. A small party of deaf, however, made the trip on their own hook to enjoy the breezes. It was made up of the following: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Durian and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Paul, a son and niece; I. M. Poorman, the Misses Alice and Jennie Donohue and two smaller sisters; Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, of Chester; Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Zell and children, and Harry E. Stevens.

Mrs. H. E. Stevens and Miss Mamie McBride spent the 20th at Atlantic City.

Misses Cora L. Ford and Eliza Longbridge are spending two weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Sanders returned to the city last Friday evening, after swinging around from Beverly, Mass., and other points to Elmira, N. Y., thence to Lebanon, and finally home.

Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Dantzer also arrived home from Lebanon last Friday evening. The former had been away two weeks, taking in the Elmira and Lebanon Conventions, and other places.

Mrs. M. J. Syle returned from an enjoyable trip to Boston and other points, on Saturday afternoon last. Arthur L. Swarts, of Boothwyn, Pa., was a recent visitor to the city, and called on the writer.

H. S. Smith spent Sunday, the 20th, in the city, coming from Lambertville, N. J., by trolley. He again left the city on Monday, preparatory to making a trip to the Pocono Mountains by boat. He will return about September 1st.

Miss Minnie Eakins, of Reading, Pa., visited here recently, but was called home before she had finished her round.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott, recently married, and moved to Pittsburg, came back here unexpectedly, on account of the illness of his wife's mother. Their stay is indefinite.

Miss Katie Eisele has returned from a two weeks' stay in the country.

Isaac W. Dewees left for Ohio on August 11th, and will be gone from one to two months. It is his native State.

Miss J. Claus, of Riverside, N. J., visited Mrs. A. Yerkes, of this city, for a week. The two were schoolmates at Trenton.

Miss Mary N. Reilly, of Buffalo, N. Y., a teacher in the Institution at that place, is visiting a brother in Germantown.

Mr. Washington Houston expects to go to New York before Labor Day.

Miss Donahue, Mrs. J. D. Sprigler and Mrs. E. L. Dorfner visited Mt. Gretna on Saturday a week ago, and reported a very fine time.

A RARA AVIS.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—A short time ago my attention was called to the very interesting case of Miss Rosoll, of Norwich, Conn., who became quite hard of hearing at ten years of age through scarlet fever. She did not lose her power of speech, but was unable to hear her classmates recite in school or understand her teacher unless she sat where she could see her lips. In spite of these obstacles she graduated from the Grammar School at the head of her class. Last June Miss Rosoll graduated from the Norwich Free Academy, the finest College preparatory school in Southeastern Connecticut, and was valedictorian of a large class. In addition to that she scooped all the prizes in sight, two prizes in gold in History and German, and medals for best work in Book-keeping and Physics. She was among the seven best students in the Art Department whose work was on exhibition. This record would be an unusual one for a person in full possession of her faculties, which makes Miss Rosoll's achievements all the more creditable. Some of the young lady's teachers and friends who have been impressed by her career are in hopes that a way may be opened before a great while for her to fit herself to become a teacher of the deaf, as it is believed that her winning personality with children as well as her intellect would combine to make her a successful instructor. She comes from a poor German family, and her friends think she deserves a more hopeful lot than that of a mill girl like many of her neighborhood mates. One of those interested particularly in her, is Rev. Llewellyn Pratt, of Norwich, a trustee of Norwich Free Academy, and if I mistake not, one of the early faculty of Gallaudet College.

Yours very truly,
EDWARD PERKINS CLARKE.

Melodrama Thrills its Spectators.

BACK FROM IRELAND.

Vacation Visitors and Happenings.

From our Regular Correspondent.

William Wren and the writer went to the New Star Theatre, to see "Custer's Last Fight," last Saturday afternoon. The couple went there early so as to get seats, as there was a big crowd. Custer's heroism in rescuing his ward and her friend from the hands of Yellow Hand and his tribe was very interesting and was received with thunderous applause. In the last act, when the Boys in Blue met the Redskins on the warpath, moving pictures had to take the place of the play as the stage was not large enough to permit a large number of horses. After the battle, Yellow Hand and some of his braves make an attempt to kill Buffalo Bill, who shoots the chiefs' men and meets him in a personal encounter in which Yellow Hand is slain and Buffalo Bill secures his scalp. When the play was over, the tremendous applause shook the building. Mr. Wren and the writer expect to go to the New Star again in a fortnight.

Mr. Patrick Conroy, the Institution coachman, whom past and present generations call Pat, recently returned from the Emerald Isle, where he went for a visit. His account of the beautiful green country, which the Irish love so well, has not yet been exhausted. He loves this country, 'tis true, but like a true Irishman, loves the land of his forefathers very dearly.

Mr. Robert E. Maynard made a raid upon the amusements of Coney Islands, Thursday evening, and he, in turn, was raided by the elements. He was caught in a terrific electric storm and was marooned on the famous Isle of Coney for an hour or more.

Mr. Charles Weinmuth, a pupil of Fanwood and who went to see the sights of Germany, last summer, was a visitor, in company with a friend, last Saturday afternoon. In company with "Tommy" Neidenberg, they visited Fort Washington Point and Park. Charles, who had his Kodak camera with him, took some excellent photographs.

Miss Annie Bonoff was here last week to see the girls and Miss Agnes Craig. Miss Bonoff has been staying in the country most of the summer. As the weather there is getting rather cool, she came to New York City, only to find that it was as hot as the torrid zone.

Fate decreed Miss Agnes Craig should meet with an accident on Sunday. She went out for a walk on the girls' side and the girls came to the windows and held her closest attention, when she stepped into a hole caused by the rain and stuck there in such a manner that it was impossible for her to extricate her foot and she had to wait until Miss Mildred Robinson came to her assistance.

Miss Mildred Robinson, of the Infirmary, during her spare moments can be seen sporting in the sparkling waters of the Hudson, and is becoming an expert swimmer. But she is averse to this enjoyment when the water is at low tide.

Last Sunday afternoon, Miss Agnes Craig, in company with Misses Annie Bonoff and Kate Bredemeyer, pupils of Fanwood, attended the services at St. Ann's Church for the first time.

On Tuesday, Miss Craig had as visitors, Mrs. Edward Rappolt and baby, of Westbury, L. I., and Miss Gertrude Turner, of Brooklyn.

Mr. Frederick Knox, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who left Fanwood ten years ago, was a Monday afternoon caller. He has been sick for quite a while, but is now almost himself again.

Mr. Louis A. Cohen, a graduate of the High Class, was a caller here on Saturday forenoon. He has a job printing office of his own and is doing very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, of Washington, D. C., visited Prof. William G. Jones, last Saturday. They remained with him all day and then went to Dr. Chamberlain's home.

After a month spent in the Catskills, Chaim Schatzkin has gone to New Haven, Ct.

Harry Barnett, with a Westchester friend, were Sunday afternoon visitors.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.

Rev. Ralph W. Keeler, Pastor of the Goodsell Methodist Episcopal Church, Sheridan and McKinley Avenues, Brooklyn, will hold religious services in the sign language for deaf-mutes, every Sunday afternoon at a quarter past four.

LEBANON.

Rev. O. J. Whildin was introduced, and said he wished to learn more about the Home in Pennsylvania. He said the eyes of other sections of the country were upon the action of the deaf of this State. He said, as we succeeded in our work, we would encourage others in the good cause, but if we failed then we disheartened others in good works. He congratulated the deaf of Pennsylvania, and hoped their light would continue to burn strong and bright.

Rev. C. O. Dantzer also spoke, and gave some instances in the affairs of the Ohio Home. There were complaints and kicking in all the Homes he had ever visited. It was only human nature and never amounted to much. The Home at Doylestown, he declared, was most beautiful and attractive, and what was more it is always neat and well managed, as he has had frequent occasions to observe.

Mrs. G. T. Sanders fell into line and told about the Boston Home, which now contains ten inmates.

Remarks were also made by Mr. Ziegler, Mr. Teegarden, Rev. F. C. Smielau, Mr. Allabough and others. After announcements by the Business Committee, the meeting adjourned until 9:30 Thursday morning.

Thursday morning session was called to order at 10:05, and was opened with a prayer by Rev. C. O. Dantzer.

The Committee on Nominations recommended Mr. Thomas Breen, Mr. R. M. Barker, Mr. J. M. Rols-house and Mr. G. T. Sanders for Managers. On motion of Mr. Ziegler, the Secretary was directed to cast the ballot, as recommended by the Committee. This was accordingly done.

The Committee on Membership made its report through Mr. A. G. Ehrle, and this was followed by that on Neurology, which reported but one death, that of James N. Friend, of Braddock.

The Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

The name of this Society—the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf—is all that its name implies. Whatever inures to the benefit of the deaf of the State has engaged its attention. Its noblest task and most heroic labors were first directed toward the establishment of a Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf persons of the State, and now that the Home has been secured it has an equally noble duty in providing for its support. The Home lies very near the hearts of our members, and we therefore willingly work and make sacrifices in order that its prosperity may be assured. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Society looks with disfavor on any proposition looking toward State or County aid at this time; that in the endeavor to provide funds for the support of the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf we have a noble work which will bind us firmly together and make us more useful to our day and generation.

Resolved, That the Society recommends a complete revision of the By-Laws, the same, together with the Charter to be printed and distributed at the 25th anniversary convention, in 1906.

Resolved, That we commend the recommendation of our President, Professor B. R. Allabough, to set aside the $150 surplus in the general fund of the Society as an endowment for the Home; and that each succeeding year's surplus be added to this sum until the sum reaches $500, when the whole shall be turned over to the treasurer of the Home.

Resolved, That we appreciate the invaluable services of our esteemed President, Professor B. R. Allabough. The Society has prospered in an unequalled measure during his incumbency of office. That this may rightfully be ascribed largely to the wise and conservative conduct of our President as well as his untiring zeal, we have no doubt. We therefore feel that the future interests of the Society demand his re-election, and urge the Board of Managers to take such action at the proper time.

Resolutions of thanks were tendered to the Lebanon Local Branch for its invitation to meet at Lebanon and for its efforts to make things pleasant; to the Trunk Line Passenger Association for greatly reduced rates over all its lines; the County Commissioners of Lebanon County for the use of the Court House; to Mr. H. D. Smith, President and General Superintendent of the Cornwall and Lebanon Railroad for his kind provision for the excursion to Mount Gretna, by which the Home will greatly profit; to Mr. Charles H. Smith, Superintendent of the Lebanon Valley Street Railway Company for special rates for a trolley ride; to the hotels for special rates; to the Mission to the Deaf of St. Luke's Episcopal Church of Lebanon for a special collection taken for the benefit of the Home; to the retiring managers, F. W. Booth, of Philadelphia, and F. A. Leitner, of Pittsburg, for their valuable services; to the local press for their accurate and complete accounts of our meetings; to the Local Committee of Arrangements; to Professors F. W. Booth and A. U. Downing for their faithful services as interpreters, and also to Dr. A. L. E. Crouter for the inspiration of his presence.

On motion, the resolutions as presented by the committee were unanimously adopted.

A recess was taken in order to give the Board of Managers an opportunity to organize.

After reconvening the secretary announced the result as follows:

President—B. R. Allabough.
First Vice-President—Franklin C. Smielau.

Second Vice-President—Geo. T. Sanders.

Secretary—Geo. M. Teegarden.
Treasurer—James S. Reider.

Dr. Crouter, on behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Institution, having extended a most cordial invitation to the Society to hold its next meeting at the Institution, the Board could do nothing but accept. The next convention will, therefore, be held at the Institution, at Mt. Airy, during the latter part of August, 1906.

After announcements by the local committee and by Rev. F. C. Smielau that the St. Luke's Deaf-Mute Mission had that morning contributed $4.15 to the Home Fund, the convention adjourned sine die.

The trolley ride, which had been arranged for in the afternoon, extended over a course of thirty-five miles through beautiful country scenes, was a most pleasant affair after the arduous work of the convention was over.

The moving picture exhibition in the evening was also largely attended and greatly appreciated. This and the trolley excursion proved profitable to the Home.

The excursion to Mt. Gretna, a local pleasure resort, had to be abandoned on account of a steady all-day downpour of rain. This was the only failure in connection with the Convention, which was unusually interesting and profitable.

CONCERNING PROCTOR'S THEATRES.

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 4TH.

Undoubtedly the most conspicuous event of the amusement season is the installation by Mr. F. F. Proctor in the historic Fifth Avenue Theatre of his all-star dramatic company, which will make its first appearance on Monday, September 4th, and continue throughout the season. Vaudeville was long ago eliminated from this theatre, but now the last lingering trace of it, the moving picture feature, is to go. The Fifth Avenue comes into its own again, and becomes once more the home of the high class drama.

Clyde Fitch's successful comedy, "The Frisky Mrs. Johnson," will be the first of several revivals.

An actress' intrigue with royalty, in the person of the Prince of Wales, is an episode on which is based the plot of the four-act drama, "The Royal Box," at Proctor's 125th Street Theatre. The part of James Clarence, which Charles Coghlan created, is assumed by Mr. William J. Kelley, last season's leading man, who returns to his old time position. In the company are Miss Beatrice Morgan as Countess Helen; Paul McAllister as the Prince of Wales; James E. Wilson as Count Jelsen; Frances Starr as Celia Poyse, others being Sol Aiken, Robert L. Hill, Mathilde Deshon, Marion Pollock Johnson, Julian Reed, Helen Ross, Wilton Taylor and Theodore Lytell.

Miss Adele Ritchie has found vaudeville so much to her liking that she rejected many offers to return to Broadway as a musical comedy star, and will re-appear at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre, during the week of September 4th. Miss Ritchie will present a new singing specialty. The extra attraction for the week is Papinta, the famous fire dancer. Ernest Hogan and his Memphis Students, one of the most pretentious of singing and dancing acts; the Twelve Navajo Girls, vaudeville's prettiest musical novelty; Stuart Barnes, the Chesterfield of monologists; Edgar Allen and Company, in "The Victor"; Mazur and Mazette, acrobatic comedians; the two Pucks, in a cute singing and dancing act; V. P. Woodward, tambourine juggler, and a new set of motion pictures replaces the bill.

Supported by an excellent company, Mr. John T. Kelly, who was for years so important a member of Weber and Field's All-Star Stock Company, will be seen at Proctor's 58th Street Theatre, in a roaring farce, during the week commencing September 4th. Edward Blondell, until recently the star of "The Katzenjammer Kids" and "The Lost Boy" companies, will present an interesting comedy sketch, and this all-star vaudeville bill also will include Fields and Ward, Hickey and Nelson, Ward and Vurren, Artie Hall, Mignani Family, Young American Quintette, and, as an extra feature, the Chinese melodrama, "The Cat and the Cherub," will be presented by the Proctor company, including Mr. James Durkin, Miss Agnes Scott, Mr. Charles Arthur, Mr. William Norton, Mr. George Howell, Mr. Robert Cummings, Miss Laura Lang and fifty Chinese actors.

The Gallaudet Memorial.

It is proposed to create a memorial to the late Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D.D., by the erection of a Parish Building for St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes. The present Church is situated on 148th Street, just west of Amsterdam Avenue, and is built some twenty-five feet back from the line of the street to permit the erection of such a building as above indicated, which will form a facade to the church edifice and be a center of religious and social life amongst the silent peoples. Dr. Gallaudet hoped during his lifetime to see the erection of this building, which would have completed the church with which his name has always been associated. This was not permitted, and it is suggested as a most fitting memorial to him that this work be now undertaken. St. Ann's Church is used wholly for the deaf-mutes.

The new building will occupy a plot of ground about forty-five feet along the street front and twenty-five feet in depth. It will be three stories in height, with a basement, and will be used for the social, religious and industrial needs of the deaf-mutes of New York. The amount required for "The Gallaudet Memorial Parish Building" will be about $30,000, and the building itself, in its position and purpose, will form a conspicuous monument to him whose life was devoted to the silent peoples. They themselves heartily endorse the memorial.
